"Change of water, air and food, irregular hours, etc., upset the best stomach, digestion, liver and bowels in the world. ## PROBE OF MEXICAN SITUATION BEGUN

The House today began what is expected to be a complete investigation of the Mexican situation.

The object of the investigation, Republican Leader Mondell said, will be to establish a definite Mexican policy for the future. Henry P. Fletcher, ambassador to Mexico, was to be the first witness, appearing before the Rules Committee this morning. Fletcher will be asked to give a firsthand account of the situation and to recommend a course for this country to pursue.

A preliminary investigation will be held by the Rules Committee, and then it is expected the work will be turned over to a special committee appointed by the Speaker.

Special points to be established by the inquiry, which will take in conditions as far back as 1910, are:

What policy the United States has adopted in pressing claims for damages brought by American citizens.

What assurances the Government has given foreign nations that their claims and property will be protected.

What measures are now being taken to protect American property and lives and what assurances has Mexico given that it will co-operate in such protection.

The House Committee on Education today voted to report favorably a bill by Chairman S. D. Fess "to provide for the promotion of vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry and their return to civil employment."

The Senate has already passed a similar measure.

Under the provisions of the bill, this work would be administered by the Federal Board of Vocational Education and would be in co-operation with the State. The Federal Government would match appropriations by State legislatures provided that the appropriation was not less than $5,000 for any fiscal year.

The bill would appropriate $500,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920, $750,000 for the following year and $1,000,000 annually thereafter.

An appropriation of $100,000 for the first year, and $150,000 annually thereafter is authorized for the administration of the law from headquarters, which would be in the District of Columbia.

An effort will be made to get the bill through the House before recess in order that legislative meetings this summer may make appropriations that their respective States may take advantage of this.

FREDERICK, Md., July 22.—Posses, which took up the trail after the Walkersville Savings Bank, at Walkersville, near here, was robbed by two masked men, arrested two men at New London, twelve miles from here.

One of the men, both of whom are only youths, was said by the police to have been identified as Norman Ogil, of Frederick, and the other as Philip Wingerdarter, of Baltimore.

After forcing the cashier and two clerks of the bank to hand over all the available currency, amounting to $3200, the two youths escaped in an automobile.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 22.—Ralph T. Meyer, cashier of the North Penn Bank, of Philadelphia, which was suspended last week by the State banking commission, confessed that the shortage of the bank would approximate $900,000. His confession was made to James W. McBurney, special receiver in charge of the affairs of that institution.

Meyer faces possible charges of perjury, embezzlement, misapplication of funds, rehypothecation of securities, defalcating and falsifying records of a bank and receiving deposits when it was known to him that the bank was insolvent.
